Newsletter 17th January 2025

We've had a very busy week in school this week!

We've welcomed some staff from a school in Preston to come and see our Reception setting and share our good practice with them.

The choir have been busy learning their songs for Let's Go Sing and had a visit from the coach to help them in preparation for the big day.

Accrington Stanley have been in Year 5 as part of their 'Move and Learn' project.

Year 5 have been busy making Spaghetti Bolognaise – yummy!

Year 6 have been very creative making masks – watch this space!

We appointed our new admin assistant for the school office.

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs White

Staffing Update

We are delighted to welcome Mrs Grace Hopcraft as our new Admin Assistant in the school office.

Lots of you will know Mrs Hopcraft from her role as Chair of the PTA and we are very excited to have her joining the team.

Mrs Hopcraft will be starting here at WWB on Monday 3rd February and I'm sure you'll all join with us in congratulating her on her new role and making her feel welcome.

Contact details

Please try and make sure that school is informed if you change address or your mobile number so that we can update our emergency contacts. Thank you.

Competition

We have received the following competition into school from the Hyndburn and Ribble Valley Sports Partnership. If anyone would like to participate, please send your entries into the school office by Friday 7th February 2025.

This half term we asking for your students help please!!

We are running a little competition; We are looking to create a new certificate and would like nothing more that this to be designed by a student from your school.

Below is a flyer explaining the details along with a copy of our current certificate to give them some guidance on what information our current certificate displays if needed. A prize is given for the best design, entry closes February half term.

We would really appreciate your support with this, we send 100's of certificates out weekly so they are important part of celebrating our event participation.

Thank you
