Newsletter 20th September 2024

We have continued to have a fabulous start to the new school year. It was great to see so many of you coming to the 'meet the teacher' evening. We hope you found it useful.

This week, we also had a visit from our School Adviser who commented on the productive learning atmosphere in school and the excellent teaching and learning he observed. Thank you to the staff and pupils for all their hard work so far this year!

Have a great weekend,

Mrs White
