

Being an author at Waddington and West Bradford CE Primary School

EYFS	Year One	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
I can use my phonics knowledge to write simple words and sentences. I can write my name using the correct letter formations. I can use basic punctuation marks like capital letters and full stops. I can label pictures and write short captions to describe them. I can use some connectives like "and" and "but" to join sentences together.	I can use capital letters and full stops correctly in my writing. I can write simple sentences with adjectives to describe nouns. I can use finger spaces between words in my writing. I can write a sequence of sentences to tell a story with a clear beginning, middle, and end. I can use question marks and exclamation marks appropriately in my writing.	I can use expanded noun phrases to add detail to my writing. I can use conjunctions like "and," "but" and "because" to join sentences together. I can use different verb tenses (e.g., past, present) in my writing. I can write paragraphs with a main idea and supporting details. I can start using speech marks to indicate direct speech in my writing.	I can organise my writing into paragraphs with clear topic sentences. I can use a range of sentence openers (e.g., adverbs, prepositions) to make my writing more interesting. I can use cohesive devices like pronouns and adverbs to link ideas across sentences. I can write non-fiction texts, such as information reports and recounts. I can proofread and edit my writing for spelling, punctuation, and grammar mistakes.	I can vary sentence structures, using different types of sentences (e.g., simple, compound, complex). I can use speech punctuation accurately in my writing. I can use paragraphs to organise my ideas and include subheadings in non-fiction writing. I can use persuasive language and techniques in my writing. I can use dictionaries and thesauruses to enhance my vocabulary choices.	I can write for different purposes and audiences, adjusting my style accordingly. I can use modal verbs and adverbials to express degrees of possibility and certainty. I can use paragraphs to structure narrative writing, using dialogue and description effectively. I can write formal letters, emails, and instructions, following the appropriate format. I can use commas, apostrophes, and inverted commas accurately.	I can use a wide range of punctuation marks, including colons, semi-colons, and dashes. I can use figurative language, such as similes and metaphors, to make my writing more engaging. I can write complex sentences with embedded clauses. I can plan, draft, and revise my writing, considering the impact on the reader. I can use a variety of sentence structures and rhetorical devices to create persuasive arguments.