Newsletter 27th June 2025

What a wonderful and eventful week it has been here at school! Our pupils have been busy with exciting activities and meaningful experiences. A heartfelt congratulations to many of our Year 6 children, who took a significant step in their faith journey by being confirmed at St Helen's Church – it was a truly special occasion for everyone involved. Meanwhile, Year 2 had a fantastic adventure to Fairhaven Lake, enjoying the fresh air, exploring nature, and making lasting memories with their friends. We're so proud of how enthusiastic and respectful all our children have been throughout the week!

Year 6 visit the Mosque

Year 6 recently visited Clitheroe Mosque as part of their learning about different faiths and cultures. During their visit, they learned about the key beliefs and practices of Islam, explored the features of the mosque, and gained a deeper understanding of Muslim worship. The children showed great respect throughout the visit, listening attentively, asking thoughtful questions, and demonstrating excellent manners.

Year 6 Confirmation

What a lovely evening we had on Wednesday at the confirmation for our Year 6 pupils followed by a pizza party back at school. The service was beautiful and the weather held for us to enjoy spending time together outside back at school. We were thrilled that Bishop Philip came to enjoy some food with us back in school and thank you to Reverend Wood for preparing the children for this special evening. Congratulations to the pupils and thank you to everyone for such a wonderful evening ❤️✝️

Year 5 Author Visit to Ribblesdale

Year 5 had a fabulous morning at Ribblesdale High School this week when they got to hear the amazing author Dan Worsley again. Dan was our Patron for Reading in 2022-2023 and has continued to visit us and tell us his creative stories! Thank you to the staff at Ribblesdale High School for inviting us along and providing the transport to get our pupils to your school.

Year 2 trip to Fairhaven

Year 2 had a fabulous trip to Fairhaven on Tuesday. It was a blistery day but the children really enjoyed the activities....especially the mud dipping! What a fabulous day 🌊

In our Christian family, we encourage, serve and respect everyone and shine in the light of Jesus!
